HCMM Design

HCMM flow chart

Read members file and instructions file into Scanner objects.

Create members from members file (scanner object) and add to Club after validating all the input information

Go through instructions file object line by line and call relevant methods to add, delete, sort members in the Club + accumulate queries for the report.

Output the results file and reports file.

